

FINANCIAL PREPAREDNESS

"One of life's most painful moments comes when we must admit that we didn't do our homework, that we are not prepared." ~ Merlin Olsen

The Season of Reveal

The godfather of podcasting (former MTV VJ Adam Curry) often notes that we're now in what he calls the Season of Reveal. Allow me to explain. For decades, an enormous amount of secrets, gaslighting, disinformation and lies accumulated into a massive overhang of deadwood over society that was primed for both an avalanche and a wildfire. The cessation of censorship and the restoration of free speech by the Trump administration resulted in a phase transition that caused that overhang to suddenly collapse into a bonfire below.

In the tech field, there's a saying: "Information wants to be free." A corollary of that is "The truth wants to be free." Eventually, the truth always outs itself. (Let's hope that that continues to be the case in a world of CIA-controlled Wikipedia, deepfakes and artificial intelligence.) Thanks to the technology of the Internet (which can now operate without official government censorship), it is now possible to freely share information and ideas, which is like a printing press times a billion.

Another important star that had to align for this to happen is Elon Musk's purchase of Twitter (now X). Back around 2000, libertarians dominated the Internet, which made it a Wild West of free speech. But then woke Millennials and the State came along and ruined it by turning it into a censored, gaslit psyop.

Most evenings I go on X to see what's happening and what people are talking about. Every day brings a deluge of new revelations that is so voluminous that I simply can't keep up. There's a constant stream of new information (including large scientific studies) about COVID, ~~gene therapy~~ “vaccines” and other Big Pharma products, the Great Reset, “climate change,” the World Economic Forum, the United Nations, the European Union, the Chinese Communist Party, the World Health Organization, Bill Gates, George Soros, NGOs, Antifa, the Deep State, the Obama and Biden administrations, mass immigration, crime, Big Food products, “gender-affirming care,” digital IDs, central bank digital currencies, Muslims, 9/11 and all of the endless wars.

The revelations about the COVID “vaccines” alone are shocking and horrific, and I've begun to fear a mass die-off in the years ahead that will allow the eugenicists and global elites to come much closer to achieving their goal of reducing the world's population to under 500 million.

It's as if a massive dam had suddenly burst. And due to this flood of new information that had long been withheld from the public, it has now become obvious that the much-maligned “conspiracy theorists” were right all along, about everything, even geoengineering.

Many brave truth seekers have stepped up to fill the information void left by decades of the Legacy Media's dereliction of duty. To be clear, if the media had done its job, none of these people would have an audience or be able to make a living. This includes everyone from independent journalists such as Tucker Carlson (don't miss his 9/11 Files series), to podcasters like Joe Rogan to social media investigators like Mike Benz to undercover journalists such as James O'Keefe to independent reporters who go down to the streets and risk personal injury for reporting on Antifa's activities.

If you don't have time to read (and watch) all of this new information, here's the gist: There are many powerful and well-financed groups in this world that would like you dead, or at least sick (and dying), subjugated, impoverished, uninformed and childless. Although they have different desired end states, they are all tyrannical and are all currently focused on a common imperative: the death of the West and civil society. Ignore this threat (and the information about it that is now available) at your peril.
